—o—o— "CHEER UP!"

One night, as a reporter from the office of an evening paper was passing along the banks of the river, he heard the sound of someone struggling in the water. "Are you drowning?" he shouted. "I am," replied a feeble voice from the water. "What a pity!" said the lad, consolingly. "You are just too late for the last edition tonight. But cheer up; you'll have a nice little paragraph all to yourself in the morning."

WANTS THE WILD WEST

Nellie Gardner.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 18.—A girl registering as Nellie Gardner, 16, who says her home is in Chicago, and that she started out for the "wild and woolly West" Tuesday noon, woke up in a cell at the Place of Detention Wednesday. She is being held until her parents can be notified.

The police say her real name is Ammela Zanerovska and that she lives at 17 S. Market st., Chicago. "This place is not Montana," she cried. "I do not see any cowboys or Indians. This is just like
